Helps for Bible Reading

These suggestions may help you read:

- Choose a place and time to read each day.
- Pray for help in understanding.
- Read and reread thoughtfully.
- Write down what you learn (helps you learn).
- Put what you learn into practice in your life.
- Find a partner to hold you accountable. Pray for each other and share what you learn.
- Keep going. It takes time and effort to get to know such a large and important book well.
- Focus on what you understand, not on what you don't. The most important things are

These questions may help you understand more.

1. What do you learn about God? Yourself? Christ? God's grace? God's plan to repair his world?
2. Is there a truth to believe? Promise to claim? Sin to avoid? Command to obey? Example to follow?
3. What seems to be the main point?
4. How does the main point fit into the book? Into the whole Bible?
5. What is the most important thing you need to do? How and when, exactly, will you do it?

Daily Bible Reading Plan

2018

God has given the Bible to tell us about himself, about his world (how it was ruined and what he is doing to make it right again), and what we must do to be part of that flawless new world. Unfortunately many Christians are familiar with only few parts of the Bible, some favorite verses and a number of stories. To learn everything God wants us to know, we need a plan — and a habit — of reading the whole Bible, not just once, but again and again.

This plan is designed to help you read through the Bible in a year. There are readings each day from the Old Testament and New Testaments, with Sunday readings from the Psalms. Some may divide the readings between morning and evening, or even read the Old Testament one year and the New the next. Readings are based on natural divisions in the text, rather than (like many plans) a set number of chapters per day. There are optional additional readings for several holidays.

May you grow this year in knowing God as you learn about him and from him through the Bible.
